

Transfer from Barcelona Airport to the City Centre

If you arrive to Terminal 2, there is a train that goes directly to the centre of Barcelona. It's also the cheapest way to get to Barcelona (4,60€ per ticket).

The Aerobus is a fast (35 minutes) and economical (5.90€) shuttle bus that connects Barcelona - El Prat airport (Terminals 1 and 2) with the city Centre of Barcelona (Plaça de Catalunya). See all the details here.

You can take a taxi directly from the airport to the city centre or directly to the conference venue. This is the most expensive, quickest and easiest way to get to the UAB (see the cheapest way below). The journey to the UAB takes 30-45 minutes, depending on the traffic and will cost 50-75€. Weekends and nights are more expensive.

Transfer from the City Centre to the Conference Venue

From the airport you will have to take the bus, or the train to get into the centre of Barcelona and then change to get a different train out to the UAB. The best way to get to the UAB from the city center of Barcelona is by train with the "Ferrocarrils de la Generalitat de Catalunya" company (FGC), lines S2 and S55 S55. Check the timetable here.

The train departs from the underground station at the Catalonia Square, in Catalan the "Plaça Catalunya" (at the very center of Barcelona). You can enter the station in front of the Café Zurich, a large café at the corner of the Plaça Catalunya that is closest to the Rambla. Please note that there are two entries to underground stations next to each other, one of them is for the FGC and the other for the metro. The correct one is indicated with the logo  FGC and above the stairs, you will see S2 and S55 indicated among the lines. The trip takes about 34-36 minutes, and a train departs every 10-15 minutes (depending on the time of the day).

Please do NOT throw away your ticket too early, because you will need it again to leave the train station when you arrive.

- Take Line S2 S2 direction Sabadell or S55 S55 direction Universitat Autònoma. Both go the UAB. (Make sure you do not take the other trains departing from there.)
- If you are going to the Hotel Campus or the apartments on campus, get off at the Bellaterra stop. From there it takes just a few minutes to walk to the hotel on a forested road. Just take the direction "Vila Universitària" and follow the road, you will see the hotel to your left hand.
- If you are going directly to the conference venue, get off at the Universitat Autònoma station. From this station, the walk takes about 10 minutes to the Faculty of Arts, where the conference will be held (see below for a description of the route).

Where to buy Tickets

Please note that we will provide a ten-trip card (T-10) valid for all public transport from the campus to Barcelona to all conference participants. Therefore, we suggest to buy just a single ticket to the conference venue.

Train ticket vending machines can be found in both the airport station and the stations in Barcelona city centre. There are five ticket machines in Barcelona Airport. If you have difficulty using the machine, ask somebody wearing a high visibility jacket - there is normally somebody manning the machines who will be able to help you.

You can pay at the machines with both cash (coins and notes up to 20€) and credit/debit cards. The languages available at machines are:

1. German
2. Spanish
3. Catalan
4. English
5. French

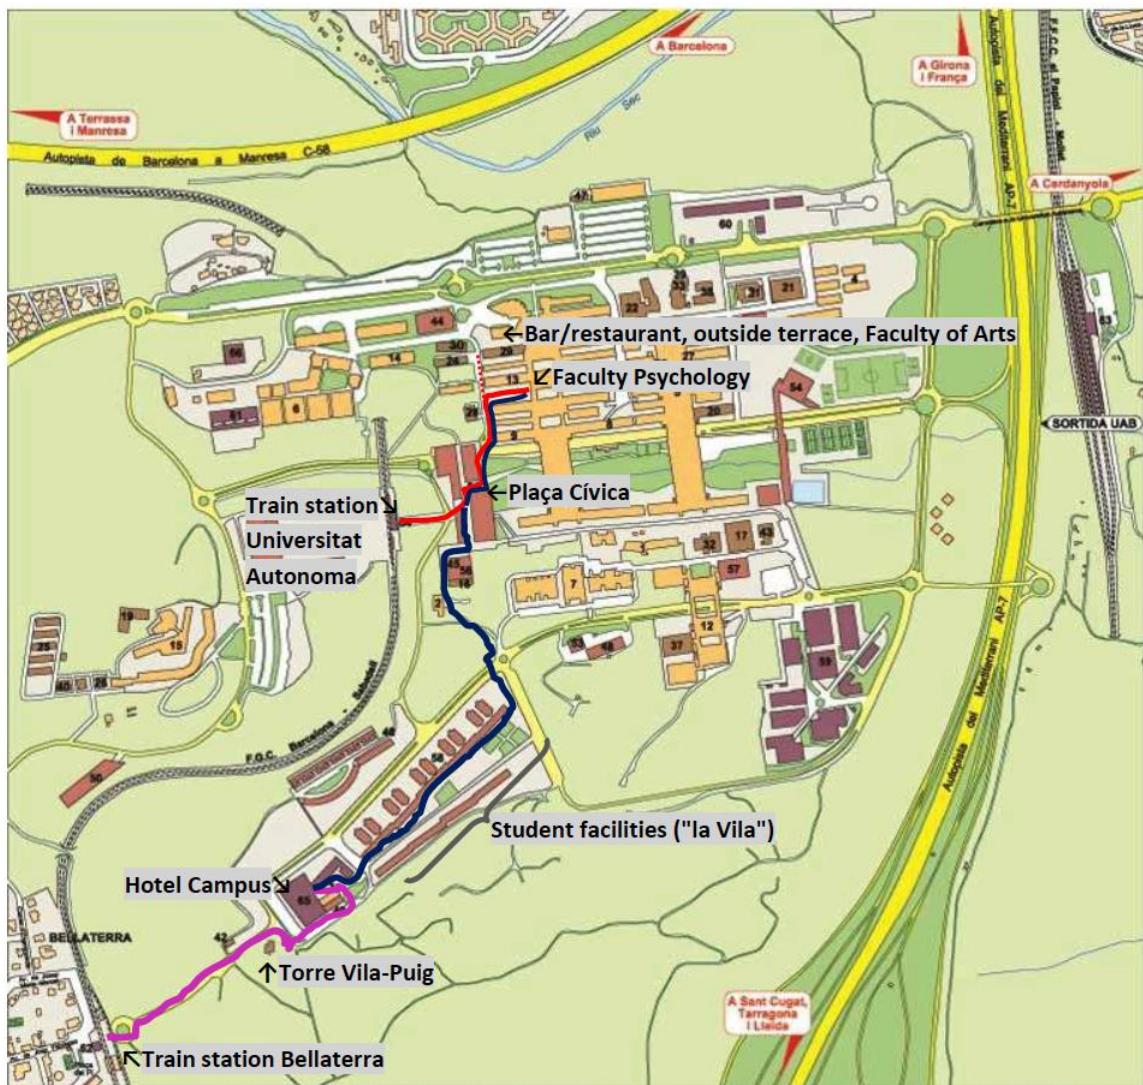

How to find your way on the campus

There will be marks from Hotel Campus and Universitat Autònoma station to the conference Venue. Just follow the marks (Euroboron9 Logo) or use your mobile to get to the Auditorium location here.

If you are not staying in the campus, once you have arrived by train at the Universitat Autònoma station, follow the crowd leaving the train station until you arrive on a large square with some shops, the "Plaça Cívica" and follow the conference marks.
